Guatemala short term mission, Fall 2009

Here is an exciting opportunity for your teens to serve their Saviour! Anchor Academy has been invited to bring a team of approximately 12 students to Santa Rosa, Guatemala to work with FeViva (Faith Alive) World Missions this fall.

Tentative plans include:

Oct. 28, 29..... Team orientation in Salmon Arm

Oct. 30 .....Fly Vancouver to Guatemala City

Oct. 31 to Nov. 15 ...Numerous ministry experiences:

1. orphanage help
2. children's community outreach
3. work projects
4. sharing testimonies, dramas, singing
5. street evangelism
6. visiting prisons, etc

Nov. 16..... Fly Guatemala City to Vancouver

Nov. 16, 17 ..... Return to Salmon Arm

Travel costs are being negotiated as this flyer is being published; however, total per person costs are not expected to exceed $2200 for transportation, meals, and accommodations.

Four high school credits are being offered for this Missions Trip 12 course, and students who sign up will receive a $200 bursary. As well, teens may apply their Anchor Academy short term mission credits for up to 50% of the total stm costs. The balance must be paid by the student and/or through tax receiptable gifts from family and friends.

Plans are also underway for a Spring 2010 short term mission to Kenya, Africa. It is expected that the Anchor team will assist with construction at the Chemwa children's home where facilities are envisioned for victims of the AIDS epidemic. Details will be published in the monthly Anchor Logs.
